

COOKSHIRE MURDERER TRIED TO TAKE HIS OWN LIFE

F. Sanschagrín Put a Bullet Into His Own Head When About to be Placed Under Arrest. Was Also Shot in the Foot By One of an Armed Posse. Is Now in the General Hospital, Sherbrooke. Coroner's Jury Bring in Verdict of Wilful Murder of Robert Westgate by Prisoner, Who Confessed to Men Who Captured Him.

(By Staff Correspondent)
Cookshire, Sept. 4.—(Special)—Joseph Alfred Sanschagrín was removed to the St. Vincent de Paul Hospital, Sherbrooke, early this morning in charge of Chief of Police Smith. He was arrested yesterday afternoon after attempting to commit suicide by shooting himself through the head, and is now held on a coroner's warrant charged with the wilful murder of Robert Westgate, a well-known resident of this place, and a member of the firm of Robert Westgate & Sons, lumber merchants.

As reported in yesterday's Record, Mr. Westgate was murdered in his office about ten o'clock yesterday morning. Suspicion fell upon Sanschagrín, who had been seen to enter the office with deceased, and practically every man in the town joined search parties to track down the accused, who escaped to the woods immediately after the murder.

Coroner Bachand, of Sherbrooke, was notified and opened an inquest yesterday afternoon. The evidence pointed clearly to Sanschagrín as the murderer, and witnesses were called who testified that accused had made a confession. A verdict was returned accordingly.

Soon after the occurrence yesterday morning Deputy High Constable Lanctot, who was in Cookshire, communicated the then known facts to the coroner by telephone, who authorized him to arrest the suspected party and procure any assistance and use weapons if necessary.

It was several hours before the murderer was finally brought to bay, and when he saw his fate he attempted to end his life, after receiving a bullet in the foot.

The motive for the crime appears to have been some dissatisfaction in regard to wages. The brother of accused told the jury he was not mentally sound, and this opinion was expressed by Dr. Johnson to several people here last night.

When the murderer was arrested, about four o'clock, the news rapidly spread, and intense satisfaction was felt that the culprit had been caught. His condition last night was very critical. It was found impossible to extract the bullet from his head, and it was feared he would not live through the night. However, hopes are entertained this morning for his recovery.

Sanschagrín will be removed to the Sherbrooke Gaol if he recovers sufficiently to be able to leave the hospital.

Coroner Bachand opened the inquest yesterday afternoon on the body of Robert Westgate at the residence of Mr. Richard Seale. The jury was composed of F. R. Cromwell, M. P., (foreman) Cyrus M. MacRae, R. Bartholomew, P. A. Barbeau, Jos. Heaton and R. H. Chaddock.

woods and had emptied his revolver. Seale could not make his revolver work and in opening it for him witness accidentally shot himself in the hand. They then gave up the chase. Witness knew nothing of the case until they started the chase. He did not see Mr. Westgate until he was being carried across the river.

SAW VICTIM AND PRISONER ENTER OFFICE
Alphonse Mignault, wood sawyer, was in deceased's employ and had worked with accused all the summer in the mill. About 9.55 that morning Sanschagrín was outside the office and motioned to deceased to go to the office with him. Deceased came out in about two minutes and looked feeble as though about to fall. Witness went to the wicket in the next room and smelt powder smoke in the office and then went into the office. The door was about half open. Witness did not see accused after the murder.

FOUND MR. WESTGATE DEAD
Joseph Barlow of Eaton stated he worked in the mill and had been working with Sanschagrín for two months. Witness saw Mr. Westgate and Sanschagrín together when the latter motioned to deceased to go into the office. A little while afterwards he found Westgate dead outside. He went into the office and smelt powder and then telephoned to Dr. Johnson who arrived later. Mignault had told witness of the powder smell. Sanschagrín had left the office when witness entered and he did not see him again until he chased him with a busby. He did not hear any shot fired as the mill was running. Last Monday deceased and Sanschagrín had trouble and there had been trouble on the previous Friday. The difficulties were over some accounts. Sanschagrín's brother told him that he had said that morning he would shoot Westgate if he didn't settle with him.

DOCTOR'S EVIDENCE
Dr. Johnson deposed that he was called about ten o'clock and found deceased lying on the ground a few feet from the office door. Life was extinct. Blood was oozing from his mouth and left nostril and there was a small amount of blood on the crown of his head.

SHOT IN THE FOOT
Mr. E. J. Planché of Cookshire testified to receiving a telephone message that Sanschagrín was in a field on the road from Cookshire going towards the Basin Road. He took a car with his son and Mr. W. T. Oughtred and seeing him in the field, left his car there and headed him off. He shouted to him to stop and give himself up but he replied, "Go to —." Tommy Wyatt shot him in the foot. Mr. J. W. Andrew of Bishop's Crossing was with witness and they were running parallel with Sanschagrín.

PRISONER SHOT HIMSELF IN HEAD
After being shot in the foot he put his revolver to his head and shot himself through the right ear. Mr. Andrew picked up the revolver (produced) and they both asked him, "Why did you shoot Robert Westgate?" Sanschagrín replied, "Because he owed me money and caused me lots of misery." He was bleeding terribly.

Mr. J. W. Andrew corroborated. The bullet in the foot shattered the bones and Sanschagrín leaped in the air. He thought he was going to shoot the chasing party. After shooting himself through the ear he said he would like a priest and a doctor. He was removed to the police station.

HOW THE MIDLAND QUEEN WAS SUNK

Woman And Baby on Board Probably Saved Crew From Going to The Bottom

VESSEL WAS OWNED IN CANADA AND WAS DESTROYED OFF THE COAST OF IRELAND.

Toronto, Sept. 4.—(Special)—When the Midland Queen, a steamer owned by the Canada Steamship Company, Limited, was sent to the bottom of the ocean 75 miles off the Fastnet, by the German submarine U-68, it is just possible that the presence on board the Canadian liner of a woman and her baby saved the crew from being sent to join other submarine victims. For the first time the story of the Midland Queen is being told. On July 21 the Midland Queen, with Captain A. Ganion in command, cleared from Sydney, C. B., for England. All went well until 4.30 on the morning of August 4. Their worst fears were realized at 4.30 a.m. on August 4. The submarine U-68, painted zebra-like in a darkish color and white, rose to the surface a mile and a half astern of the Midland Queen.

No sooner had the crew of the steamer been summoned to stations than the German underwater craft opened fire from her deck gun. Like popping corks she spat three shells at the Midland Queen. One passed between the mainmast and the funnel, but the others dropped short. As the submarine was travelling eighteen knots an hour to the Midland Queen's nine, the Canadian captain ordered his engineer to shut off steam. As the steamer was slowing up the captain ordered his crew to take to the boats. The last boatload was just leaving when the submarine came up pretty close with crew ready for action.

Mrs. Crossan, the wife of the chief engineer, was then getting down the rope ladder with her twelve-month-old babe. Like a mother, she was apprehensive of the danger to her baby, and, taking the little one in her arms, she waved him before the eyes of the commander of the submarine.

The response was that the gun crew were called below and the crew of the Midland Queen, then afloat in two ship's boats, were ordered to row fifty yards from the steamer. The command was being carried out when Engineer Crossan, whose home is in Toronto, caught sight of the black cook of the Midland Queen shouting piteously for help from the back of the steamer. He had been inadvertently left behind. By this time six shots had been fired from the submarine at the Midland Queen, four astern around the engine room, one amidships and the other near the forepeak. Crossan in his boat approached the submarine and asked permission from the commander to take the cook off. A German officer answered the engineer's salute and told him to get alongside the Midland Queen as quick as possible. No time was wasted, and the cook, in a frantic condition, was taken off.

Within seventeen minutes of the firing of the shots the Midland Queen sank, her dynamo running, her whistle blowing and the Union Jack flying.

The next day had well advanced and the crews in the boats were well nigh exhausted when the Norwegian steamer Edda hove in sight. Distress signals were shown, and very soon the members of the Midland Queen were taken aboard the Norwegian vessel, from whose captain and crew they received the best of attention until they were reshipped to a British cruiser and taken to Queenstown.

In to-day's paper will be found several new firms, and on Monday the whole selling force of the Sherbrooke merchants will be employed in boosting this sale.

GERMANS ARE NOT INTERESTED

Little Attention Paid in The Press to Settlement of Crisis With United States

EDITORIAL ARTICLES, HOWEVER, EVINCE HEARTY SATISFACTION THAT CONFLICT WAS AVOIDED.

Berlin, via London, Sept. 4.—(Special)—The news of the settlement of the crisis between Germany and the United States, by reason of Germany modifying her submarine campaign, has as yet evoked comparatively little comment in the German press. Public attention has been mainly concentrated on the victories in the East and rumors of an impending new campaign, so that little discussion on the American situation is being heard.

The Tageblatt and the Frankfurter Zeitung, however, print leading editorial articles which evince hearty satisfaction that a conflict with the United States has been avoided, and expressed the hope that the relations between the two countries from now on will continue to improve. The chief editor of the Tageblatt, after pointing out that the situation has been far graver than was generally assumed in Germany, argues that the understanding with the United States was highly desirable, not only because of the effect which a break would have had on the Balkan situation, with its delicate negotiations, but because there could be nothing more illogical for Germany imaginable than a conflict with the United States over such a question.

VON FORSTNER KILLED IN ACTION

Was German Officer Who Gained Notoriety Over The Zabern Incident

Berlin, via London, Sept. 4.—(Special)—Lieut. Baron von Forstner, who gained notoriety as a result of the Zabern incident, has been killed in action. Von Forstner was reported to have been killed near Louvain in September, 1914, but official confirmation was lacking.

The Zabern incident occurred at Zabern, Alsace, where the 99th German Infantry, under Colonel von Reuter, was stationed in 1913. The citizens of the town had difficulties with the soldiers and showed strong feeling. Lieut. von Forstner provoked several clashes between his men and the inhabitants, and told the soldiers to bayonet any one insulting the German flag. He himself sabred a lame shoemaker. For this exploit he was tried and sentenced to 43 days' imprisonment, although strongly upheld by Colonel von Reuter, his commanding officer. The incident caused great excitement throughout Germany.

WELCOME TO PREMIER BORDEN

Declares That Canada Will Bear Full Share to Obtain The Victory

DETERMINED TO FIGHT THE BATTLE FOR LIBERTY TO VICTORY NO MATTER WHAT COST.

Montreal, September 4.—Montreal honored Premier Borden last night with a welcome which ranked with the greatest demonstrations that this city has seen. The reception he received all along the route and from the huge crowd which packed Fletcher's Field from Duluth Avenue to Rachel street and beyond was a spontaneous manifestation of support and approval such as has been given to few leaders in public life by the citizens of the Canadian metropolis. Huge crowds turned out to welcome the Canadian Premier, and their welcome was such a convincing proof of popular sympathy and support as might well inspire any statesman.

THE PREMIER'S SPEECH.
"I cannot tell you now deeply I appreciate this magnificent reception," he said, "although I know that it is not due to me personally, but to the position I hold. In that position I have gone across the Atlantic for the purpose of securing closer co-operation between the Government of Canada and the Government and people of Great Britain, and also the Government and people of France.

"Could I make my voice heard throughout so vast an assemblage as this, I could tell you many things that would be both of interest and inspiration to you all.

add great welcome after oh Mr. Grace Ritchie England, Dr. I have visited at the front those Canadians who have already won on the battlefield such glorious distinction for this Dominion. From His Majesty the King, from the President of France, from that great heroic figure, General Joffre (cheers), and from General French I have heard the same tributes to the magnificent valor of our Canadian forces. And at Shorncliffe I saw 40,000 Canadians under review, when one of the greatest soldiers in Britain told me he had reviewed 400,000 soldiers within a short time, but had seen none finer than these men from Canada."

At Boulogne Sir Robert said he had met 1,500 Canadians on their way to the front, and the spirit of the men was shown by the fact that amongst them were a dozen or more stowaways, who had stolen in with them in order the sooner to get to the fighting lines.

"Even greater than this," proceeded the Premier, "was my privilege of visiting the convalescent hospitals. There I met our gallant men who had come back from the very valley of the shadow of death. They had gone through as trying ordeals as have ever been recorded in the history of the world, and I found them all cheerful, and all inspired with the same courageous determination as those others still at the front. It was an inspiration to me, and I felt, when I addressed a thousand convalescent Canadians that it was the noblest audience I had ever faced. Altogether I visited 41 hospitals where Canadians were, and at these I met men from all parts of the Empire who had fought in France, Belgium and the Dardanelles—the men who won fame at Ypres, Festubert and Givenchy. They were from many lands, but they were all comrades who had fought and would fight (Continued on page 10.)

RUSSIANS STUBBORNLY DEFEND DVINA

Should Germans Cross River They Would be Compelled to Evacuate Riga

THAT BOMBARDMENT IN WEST MEAN EARLY ADVANCE OF ALLIES.
Petrograd, Sept. 4, via London.—(Special)—On the Caucasus front, in the coast region, a Turkish attempt to dislodge our vanguard failed, and the Turks were put to flight by our hand grenades. In the direction of Olti our patrols forced the Turkish outpost positions in the region of Lake Akhizhel at the point of the bayonet and captured their trenches, killing 200 and capturing war booty.

FIERCE STRUGGLE AT DIVINA RIVER

London, September 4.—The Germans in their official report yesterday claim to have carried by assault the fortified bridge-head at Lennwada, on the Divina River, between Friedrichstadt and Riga. This is considered for the Russians the most critical point on their whole front, for, should the Germans succeed in crossing the Divina, the Russians would be compelled to evacuate Riga, and their position between the Divina and Vilna, and even southwest of the latter city, would be jeopardized.

However, the Germans do not yet claim to have crossed the river, which is being defended by a reinforced army under the command of General Ruzsky, who has proved himself to be one of the greatest strategists of the war and who brought the previous German advance to a stop on the Bzura River in front of Warsaw. It is believed by military critics that the Russians will make a stubborn defence on the Divina the opinion being expressed that should they fall here, the German fleet would gain command of the Gulf of Riga and by landing troops at Pernau would considerably shorten the protracted march to Petrograd, which is understood to be the ultimate objective of the German higher command.

In view of the importance of the battle raging along the lower Divina, the fighting elsewhere loses some of its interest, for, wherever they are, the Russians must keep their eyes on this corner of the map. Grodno, which the Russians evacuated, apparently proved an empty shell to the Germans, as they captured only four hundred prisoners after street fighting. To the northwest of Vilna, the Russians are on the offensive, and while the Germans say the Russian counter-attacks have been a complete failure, it is said in Petrograd that the counter-offensive seriously threatens the German left flank and communications with the army of Lt. General von Eichhorn.

RUSSIANS TAKING TOLL

The Russian centre is still retiring through the marshy districts. However, every day they are taking a toll of their pursuers. The Russians, also are offering resistance to the Austro-German offensive in Galicia, and southeastward of Lutsk they hold a front of some fifty miles, intersected by hills, woods and rivers which afford a splendid cover for a defensive army.

NO REPORT FROM DARDANELLES
Concerning the operations at the Dardanelles, no news has been received since the report last Wednesday from General Sir Ian Hamilton, commander of the British forces on the peninsula.

EARLY MOVE BY ALLIES

The continued successes of the Austro-Germans in the east lead many writers to the conclusion that the sustained bombardment of the German lines in the west means an early move of the Entente Allies. The critics point to this, the thorough redistribution of the British and French armies and the shelling of Zebrugg some days ago as heralding something at least preliminary to a general offensive.

NEW RUSSIAN PREMIER

London, Sept. 4.—The Petrograd correspondent of the Times says it is believed that General Polivanoff, Russian Minister of War, will become Premier with extensive powers to reconstruct the cabinet.

THE CANADIAN GOVERNMENT OFFERS SUGGESTIONS FOR FRUIT PRESERVING.

In an advice circulated throughout Canada, the Fruit Branch Dept. at Ottawa suggests as being best for preserving purposes, certain brands of peaches: St. Johns, Elbertas, Crawfords and Smocks, and for plums Bradshaws, Gages, Logbards, Reins Claude.

The advice is timely and to it may be added that many of the most successful makers of preserves have for years insisted on securing from their grocers the St. Lawrence Extra Granulated Sugar (Para Cane).

It is well known that the slightest organic impurity in sugar will start fermentation in the jam, and St. Lawrence Sugar which tests over 99 per cent pure, has never failed the housewife. Grocers everywhere can fill orders for this sugar. The best way to buy it is in the original refinery sealed packages 2 or 5 lbs. cartons, 10, 20, 25, and 100 lb. bags.

When the local culprit was apprized he was in possession of the goods, it was returned badly damaged with the promise it would be repaired. Thus the incident closed.

MINISTERS AT WEST SHEFFORD

Members of Waterloo District of Methodist Church Endorse No. License Campaign in Bromo

MOST OF MISSIONS IN DISTRICT ARE BETTER OFF FINANCIALLY THAN IN PREVIOUS YEARS

West Shefford, Sept. 4.—(Special)—At a meeting of the Waterloo District of the Methodist Church held here on Thursday, the following resolution was passed, and which will be read in all the Methodist Churches in Bromo County:

"Resolved: That this district meeting notes with great satisfaction the aggressive campaign in behalf of temperance which is now being carried on in the County of Bromo, and hereby pledge itself to hearty co-operation in the same, and commends the movement to the favorable consideration of all our people throughout the county, praying them to cast their vote on Sept. 16 and to work actively in the interests of the cause."

The Chairman of the District Rev. W. S. Lennon, B. A., B.D., occupied the chair, and a good representation of ministers and laymen were present. There were three sessions, the morning and afternoon being taken up with routine business, an illustrated lecture on Japan being given in the evening by the chairman, open to the public.

Consideration of the mission fields in the district, of which there are seven, took up the whole of the time of the morning session. It is gratifying to know that in spite of the financial depression caused by the war, most of these missions will ask for a smaller grant from the missionary society than formerly, and in one case, that of Freilingsburg, not one half of the grant made last year is being demanded this. This has been brought about by a very successful canvass of the field, resulting in a surplus advance in givings from $535 to $860.

Gratification at the results of the evangelistic campaign of last winter was expressed, and efforts are again to be made this coming winter over the whole district to build up the spiritual life of the churches. Cottage prayer meetings are already being planned for on some of the fields. In connection with this special work the Rev. S. F. Newton was asked to draft a plan for a general exchange of pulpits in October. In November it has been decided to set apart one Lord's Day to be known as local preacher's Sunday. Most of the pulpits will be occupied that day by the fifteen local preachers in the district.

An itinerary for Dr. Spencer, a missionary on furlough, was arranged, he visiting every part of the district from the 13th to the 27th of this month.

The Ministerial Association re-elected the same officers as last year, arranged their programme of topics and speakers for the current year and at the meeting of the district to be held in Cowansville on the 15th of November chose as subjects for discussion, "The Suffering Servant" based on Isaiah 53, and the book of the late Rev. Sylvester Horne, "The Romance of Preaching."

Ladies of Red Cross Netted $220 From Luncheon Served at Missisquoi Fair

SOCIETY IS DOING GOOD WORK IN SENDING FIRST CLASS MATERIAL TO MEN.

Bedford, Sept. 4.—(Special)—The ladies of the local branch of the Red Cross Society were successful in their efforts to raise money at the Bedford Fair. The exhibition management very kindly gave them space in which to serve lunch, and at the close of the fair the Red Cross Society increased their funds by $220. The untiring energy and zeal of the ladies who are taking an active interest in this Society is worthy of notice. The quality of work which is being turned out and forwarded to the trenches is of a very high order.

MARBLE WORKS RUN FULL TIME. Mr. T. A. McGinnis, Manager of the Missisquoi Lantz Corporation Ltd., Phibsburg, was in town on Friday morning. He reports that the marble works are running full time, and that they have plenty of orders.

WHY NOT LAY CONCRETE FLOOR. A new floor has recently been laid on the iron bridge, a much needed improvement. Would it not be better and cheaper to put down a cement floor? A new cement walk to replace the old wooden sidewalk on the street running east and west on the north side of the river, would meet with approval.

VALUATION ROLL HOMOLOGATED. The regular monthly meeting of the Town Council was held on Wednesday the 1st instant. Very little business was transacted. The valuation roll was homologated, and the usual budget of accounts passed.

NOTES.

Miss Rix is at present in pension with Mrs. Rogers.

Soup For the Wounded

Miss Kathleen Dunsnuir, daughter of Hon. James Dunsnuir, of Victoria, B.C., is engaged in one of the most practical movements on behalf of the wounded soldiers that have been undertaken. Upon her arrival in England, Miss Dunsnuir purchased a large motor truck which she fitted up as a soup kitchen. This was attached to the Army Service corps by the government, and she was given by Gen. Bruce Williams a special guard to meet her at Havre and look after her stores. Miss Dunsnuir's plan is to make her base at Havre and to run her motor to and fro behind the firing line, meeting the wounded as they come from the trenches.

"THE TRAIL OF THE LONESOME PINE"

How many millions of book lovers in the world have read the delightful story of "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" is problematical but all who have read the book will want to see the play which Eugene Walter has written around Mr. Fox's romantic girl, Jane. Mr. Walter's play transfers to the stage the atmosphere of the Virginia hills. The production is so artistically perfect that you are almost made to believe you are inhaling the fragrance of the Mountain-side. The play comes to His Majesty's on September 8.

THE LATE MRS. CHARLES BURTON.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Charles Burton, who passed away Monday last, took place Wednesday afternoon from her husband's home, Drummond street, to the Methodist Church, where the service was conducted by the Rev. George A. McIntosh, prayers being previously said at the house. The pastor made a most appropriate and touching address, dwelling upon the facts of life, death and immortality, and the lessons for the living. He also spoke of the character of deceased, perfected by suffering, and addressed words of comfort to those whom she has left to mourn.

After the service the mortal remains were borne to Elmwood cemetery, where the last rites were performed. The attendance of relatives and friends from the city and vicinity was large, and the numerous floral tributes on the casket testified to the general regret and sympathy.

The bearers were the following: Messrs. Thos. Livingston, M. E. McEwan, H. Smith, W. Smith and W. Brown, and the principal mourners were Mr. Chas. Burton, husband of deceased; Albert W. Burton, Walter

C. Burton, Sherbrooke, and Ernest R. Burton, Claremont, N.H., sons; Mr. Arthur Wilkins, son-in-law; Geo. Franklin, Newbury, Vt., Benjamin Franklin, South Newbury, Vt., brothers; Frank Hatcher, East Sherbrooke; Charles Bennett, St. Johnsbury, Vt., A. H. Burton, Sherbrooke, brothers-in-law; Raymond and Geo. Burton, grandsons; Fred Burton, of Waterville, uncle; Alvin Hatcher, Willie Burton, Edward and Gordon Hatcher, nephews.

Other relatives present were: Mrs. Deacon, Waterville; Mrs. Banfield, Lennoxville; Misses Hatty and Helen Franklin, South Newbury, Vt.; Miss Ada Hatcher, East Sherbrooke; Mrs. Ernest Burton, Claremont, N.H.; Mrs. A. H. Burton, and others.

The late Mrs. Burton was born in Leeds, Megantic, but had lived in Sherbrooke for some 45 years ago. After her marriage, thirty-eight years ago, her home was on a farm in Belvidere, where she brought up her family and performed well and capably all the manifold duties of the house and home-keeper. Her health began to fail and for a long period she was a partial invalid. After coming to the city four years ago, her sufferings became acute, complications set in, and she was confined to bed. She received the tenderest care and attention from her husband and those about her but failed gradually till the end came. A kind neighbor, affectionate wife, fond mother and helpful friend, Mrs. Burton leaves behind her a dear memory. Her piety and resignation in her affliction were remarkable, and she met death as a friend who came to set her free.

In addition to the husband, sons, and other relatives mentioned above, she is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Arthur Wilkins; a niece, Mrs. Ralph Gauthier; a sister, Mrs. Frank Hatcher; John, William and James Franklin, brothers, in Western Canada, and six grandchildren.

THE ONLOOKER COMMENTS

Winter's Boon

While another winter's campaign means trench hardships for our boys in France, their hurrying on of the cold weather will mean relief to the harassed Russians. They have had no respite, no chance for rest or reorganization, and winter offers them what Germany so relentlessly refuses—an opportunity to prepare for the offensive again. Military critics who admit that the Russian army, not Petrograd, is the German objective agree in anticipating that the equinoctial storms will stay the German advance in Russia.

The end of the war seems not yet, nor soon, and another winter campaign is assured. The Germans have advanced in Russia—the allies have progressed in the Dardanelles. This sums up the war situation for the summer.

Never Again

The never again of the German "Arabic" note to the United States will probably be very acceptable to Wilson, who, undoubtedly, would have been happy to receive half an apology or promise. The United States, no matter how many slaps it gets, will never slap back; this was demonstrated in Mexico long before Germany began to irritate the American public mind. Col. Roosevelt would like to pay the Teuton back for his impudence, but not the peace-loving Wilson, and so long as the Wilson Administration is the autocratic last word in the land of stars and stripes there will be no war. Wordy tiffs, possibly. But a punch or a prod, or anything diplomatically unpleasant, can never occur. Bryan resigned because he feared his country was speaking too loud in the presence of Germany, but although he left his office and joined the "watch on the Rhine," his Government remembered him with gratefulness, and did not break with Bernstorff.

There was only one thing missing in the "Arabic" note, and that was the kind regards of Germany to its friends in America.

The correspondence is concluded. The peace party may now sing "I didn't raise my boy to be a soldier," while democracy, unaided by the republic of the United States, fights autocracy and oppression on the battlefields of France.

Returning Soldiers

Almost every incoming ship brings home to Canada soldier lads of the First Contingent, who fought the fights around Ypres and survived those trying days.

The people of Canada are subscribing liberally for the equipment of men at the front, and for the aid of soldiers in overseas hospitals. What are they going to do about the boys who have fought the fight and are coming home, more or less incapacitated? But a comparative few have arrived thus far. Later they will come in hundreds and even in thousands. To the employer the test of his patriotism and gratitude will come when his representative in the war walks in to apply for his old job. Give it to him and put him in the first line for promotion. He deserves it. He has risked his life that your business may go on as usual.

The obligation of the public generally is obvious. The Government will make provision for them through pensions. The various communities must make provision for them by receiving them back into civil life on favorable terms. Do not by any chance give the lads reason to feel that they have made their sacrifices without reason, that the community they have represented in the great fight did not deserve the efforts they have made and the hardships they have undergone. Do the right thing by the soldier lads when they come home.

German Language in Disgrace in U. S. Universities

A remarkably significant fact is reported in connection with the language options at New York and other American universities and educational institutions. Students have the option of selection in the matter of modern languages. It is said that prior to the war about 90 per cent. chose German, but that this year the German selection has fallen to about 10 per cent., while French or Spanish have sprung into popularity and represent the choice of nearly 90 per cent. of the students.

Nothing could more clearly represent the sentiment of the American youth or of the American people. The ruthless spoliation of Belgium, the unprovoked attack upon the liberties of the world, the murder of women and children upon the high seas, has developed a feeling of abhorrence in the minds of the citizens of all free countries. Students of free America refuse to study the German language. The Statue of Liberty at the entrance of New York Harbor truly stands for something. It is the gift of France, the gallant representative of democracy in Europe, to the great American Republic. Nothing could be more appropriate or more in harmony with the spirit that one might expect among free-born Americans than that the French language, classic, rich and representative of freedom, should take the place of the language of the Germans, sullied by the ruthless acts of German militarism, seeking by unprovoked aggression the destruction of human liberty in the world.

The Fall Fairs

The fall fairs have shown up exceedingly well, and considering the depression in industry the attendance at these yearly agricultural shows has been very satisfactory. There is every evidence that the farmers are taking unusual interest in bringing about as successful harvests as have ever been produced in the Townships. In their very tone and attitude there is determination to help in this national crisis, and not to lag behind in any effort to keep up "business as usual" in agriculture.

A certain particular reason for pleasure is felt in reading, in the address presented to Mr. G. G. Foster, the statement that twelve hundred and twelve acres of land, additional, have been put under cultivation in Broome County the past year. Statements of this nature spell progress and express the tendency of all agricultural fairs this year to give agricultural development its proper place as first in importance.

Not in seventy years has Stanstead County had a more enthusiastic agricultural meet than in this year of 1915, and on Wednesday the largest attendance on any one day in its history was recorded at Ayer's Cliff.

The exhibits, like the attendance, are surprisingly good.

The live stock exhibit at Broome was declared to be the best ever shown, and Ayer's Cliff reports its exhibits as in every way more than creditable.

The E.T.A.A. can wish for nothing better than an exhibition as pleasing and as conclusively successful as those already held in county towns. After reading the reports of the Red Cross Societies and the lists of contributors to patriotic causes, and the reports of the fall fairs, one must feel that our people are earnestly, honestly and generously, by gift and interest, "doing their bit" to help their country through a difficult period in its history. For the success of the farmer is a very important matter in the patriotic propaganda.

'Befo' the War

Scarcely a luxury or a necessity but has increased in market value or price since the outbreak of the war, and although this increase may be due to higher duties, the war tax, or a greater demand than supply, in many cases there seems no legitimate cause for the change. The suspicion even creeps in that the reason for an increase in the price of certain manufactured goods is the same as that proven against the men who offered useless horses to Government agents for use in the Canadian army—because the opportunity for private graft existed.

There is always a grafter, in the most strenuous times or the most dull—in the most wicked of crime gangs, or within the holiest of societies—and the "enormous cost of the war," a fact of which we are daily reminded, means that to some firms and individuals enormous moneys are being paid. From the farmer who sells his broken-down horse for twice its value, to the men who drive the Welsh miners to strike, there are thousands who make their large or petty graft.

Admitting that much of the profit is legitimate, there is also much that is "on the side." While England pleads with the munition workers or the coal miners to be patriotic, and urges them on to more labor at the same old prices, the employers of these laborers are making money enough to increase wages and make the almost intolerable conditions more endurable. While the employer continues to work for the almighty dollar, he coaxes his workmen to work for England until they drop, and at the old wages. And then leaves the muddle for Lloyd George to straighten out, while the rest of the world gazes at England's truant laborers.

Always there is someone who makes the best of his opportunity, and the others pay. Is there any useful article that has not increased in price since the war opened, and for which increase the public pay? Has market pressure forced prices up, or is it rather a popular and fashionable business move? "Before the war you could purchase this article for two dollars; now it is two-fifty." Haven't you heard them say this, or something similar, a hundred times? Haven't you? Until you wonder how the poor family keeps the wolf from his door.

He doesn't. The Welsh miners have shouted this fact to the world, have struggled, even in wartime, against economic oppression which makes their employers fat with profit, and

County Organizations Will be Formed for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals

MR. H. V. TRUETT APPOINTED PRESIDENT AND MRS. CHANDLER SECRETARY OF KNOWLTON SOCIETY.

Knowlton, Sept. 4.—(Special)—At the last session of the Provincial Legislature, through the efforts of Mr. W. F. Vilas, M.L.A., an act was passed to permit the formation of county societies for the prevention of cruelty to animals. Under the provisions of that statute such a society has been formed for the County of Broome. A meeting of all those interested in the protection of animals was held in the Historical Building, Knowlton, for the purpose of organization under the new law. Hitherto the society has been largely local, and it is hoped that now the membership will be extended over the whole county, with agents in every important centre.

Mr. H. V. Truett was elected president in place of Mr. R. E. Miller, who resigned, and Mrs. H. E. Chandler re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Mr. Justice Lynch, honorary president of the society, spoke of having a representative in each town, and that a committee be formed to appoint these, also that each society should provide its own by-laws.

Hon. Sidney Fisher then moved that a committee be appointed to draft new by-laws and report to a meeting to be held in the Pettes Memorial Hall on September 21, representatives from each town to be present. Words of appreciation were spoken by Mr. R. E. Miller, the past president, on the valuable work done by the secretary, Mrs. H. E. Chandler, who had held the office for the past five years.

APPEAL TO BROME CO. FARMERS

Mr. G. G. Foster, K. C., Backs up Plea For More Cultivation of Land in a Substantial Way

WANTS THE ACREAGE NEXT YEAR TO SHOW A MUCH LARGER INCREASE

Brome, Sept. 4—(Special)—As previously mentioned in the Record Mr. G. G. Foster, K.C., was presented with an address from the president and directors of the Brome County Agricultural Society on Thursday afternoon. This was in appreciation of the work that Mr. Foster has been doing to get farmers interested in cultivating more soil.

The address, which has already been published, was read on behalf of the Society by Mr. Justice Lynch.

MR. FOSTER'S REPLY

Mr. G. G. Foster, K.C., in reply, said as follows:

"Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen—

"I thank you for your kind words and the evidence you have handed me of the co-operation by the farmers of Brome County in an effort to encourage them to play their part, no matter how small it may seem to some people, in providing food stuffs for that portion of the Empire in which our homes are situated.

"In Sept. last when I realized the terrible events (so far as they could be realized) which were bound to follow this war, I made up my mind that important as it was to have soldiers and sailors, ammunition and clothing, that it was also important that those men and women who, from one cause or another, could not participate in the ranks among the fighting line, should at any rate show their patriotism and devotion to common cause, by contributing in every way in their power towards our success in this struggle.

I felt that it was my duty to take such steps as I could to assist my neighbors to realize their obligations as I saw them, and notwithstanding the criticism of some of our friends, and their prophecies that the effort would amount to nothing, that Brome County could not raise any crops, that the farmers were too busy doing something else to devote the time and work necessary to make a fair contribution, I made the effort, and it is not necessary for me to tell you that I am proud of you today, and so far as I am concerned I may say that I do not consider my obligation in this regard has been discharged by our first attempt. It is true that our efforts may appear small to great western farmers, and to men who deal in millions of bushels of produce. It is also true that we in Brome County may be handicapped in trying to achieve the great results that can be obtained in some parts of Canada but there is one thing you have proved to everyone of them, and it is that our farmers generally have greatly increased their acreage, and that one hundred and seventy-five men have exercised such diligence and patriotism in this regard that we can see if the balance of Canada would follow us the future of the food problem would soon be disposed of.

WILL SHOW INCREASE IN ACREAGE

Now I am not going to attempt to make any speech to you today upon this war, and I am not going to lecture you or appear to advise you unduly as to your duty, but I am going to say to you from the bottom of my heart that you and I can see signs enough in this first competition to satisfy us that, with God's help the year 1916 can show Brome County to have obtained (through her farmers) an increase in her crop acreage that will be something for us to point to with pride so long as we live.

Now I want to ask every man and woman in this audience (encouraged by the results of this year), and full of that patriotism and loyalty that I know they possess, without regard to any prize or profit, to go home from this gathering determined that no matter what anybody else in or out of Brome may do, that every farmer will make a substantial gain in his crops during the coming year.

Some people will try and discourage you by telling you that there is no profit in this or that, but I tell you solemnly that it is an obligation you owe yourself, your county and your country during this fall and next spring to see to it (even if other counties do not wake up to their full obligations) that Brome County ranks second to none in a patriotic desire to feed at home and abroad the men who are risking their lives and sacrificing their comfort for the protection of every man, woman and child in this county today.

EYES OF MANY COUNTIES ON BROME

Remember farmers of Brome the eyes of many counties are upon you. Remember that the word will go forth today that one hundred and seventy-five men have discharged their duty (although many of us have not done all we should) and that if you are true to the traditions that have governed life in these Townships in the past, you will let no county in Canada show greater progress than will be made by the farmers of Brome in 1916.

CONGRATULATE FARMERS

I have here a letter from that dear old friend of all of us, Dr. J. W. Robertson of Ottawa, in which he says: "I congratulate the farmers of Brome upon having made a gain in the acreage of grain and feed crops during this year that is most creditable to themselves, their society and their country."

I have another letter from J. C. Harrison, Principal of Macdonald College, that great institution which is doing so much for the farmers of this Dominion, and which stands today as a monument to the greatest and most generous patron of the educational interests of Canada, Sir William Macdonald. He says: "I am deeply interested in the laudable endeavor being made by the Brome Agricultural Society to increase their production, and I wish that the example being set by your efforts might spread throughout the land, in order that the farmers of Canada might show during the coming year that same measure of patriotism that is being shown by our soldiers in the trenches."

I have another letter from Morley E. Honey, Department of Agriculture Ottawa, who inspected the crops for these prizes, in which he says: "I was surprised and delighted with my reception in Brome, and at the manifest interest that has been awakened, and I shall be one of those to hope that Brome County next year will set us the same good example she has done during the present."

WILL GIVE LARGER PRIZES FOR 1916

Now, ladies and gentlemen, I make the following proposition to you under the conditions mentioned last year. I will give for the coming year to the farmer in Sutton, East Farnham, Brome, Bolton East, Bolton and West Bolton, a prize of twenty-five dollars each for the largest acreage of crops, and I will give a further prize to each of the same Townships of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) to the farmer whose crop averages the highest yield of grain per acre.

In addition to this I will give another prize of fifteen dollars in each Township to the farmer who has the greatest acreage (and $10.00 to the second, but no one can enter for this competition who has won a prize during the present year, or who competes for the first above.

PRIZES FOR BOYS.

In order that the boys of Brome County may feel that they have a duty in this same line, I will give a further prize of ten dollars for each Township in the County to the boy under twenty years of age (his father, mother or guardian being a member of this Society) who submits for competition the largest acreage of potatoes, field corn, roots and beans, the whole worth for same, except plowing and thinning to be certified by him in writing to have been done by the applicant, and five dollars in each Township to the boy who submits the second largest acreage.

Now, boys, I want you to enter into this competition with the greatest enthusiasm you have ever shown, and I want you to do it not for the prize you may win, but in order that you may feel (those of you who cannot, or are too young to go to the front) that you have done your duty in this emergency, and I can imagine no greater honor that will be prized by any of you in the days to come than to be able to say that you were

We extend to you a cordial invitation to visit our exhibit of mail order goods on the fifth floor of our Mail Order Building, Albert St., near Yonge (opposite our store), on September 8th to 11th. You will find a most interesting display comprising many of the lines advertised in our big Fall and Winter Catalogue. Garments will be shown on living models. Competent guides will show and explain things to you. Tea will be served. Orchestra in attendance. Of course no admission fee—just an opportunity we are glad to have to meet you and welcome you.

I have pleasure in telling you that I am in receipt of a letter from the same generous unknown friend, who last year supplemented my prizes, and he authorizes me to again announce that he will give fifty dollars to the farmer in Brome County who has the largest acreage of grain under the condition laid down in my prize list—thirty dollars to the second and twenty dollars to the third, and he adds: "I should like to think that the Daughters of Brome were interested in this patriotic game, and these prizes, in which he says: "I was surprised and delighted with my reception in Brome, and at the manifest interest that has been awakened, and I shall be one of those to hope that Brome County next year will set us the same good example she has done during the present."

Now, my friends, it is up to you, to show not only your appreciation of what your friends are ready to do, but to stand under the burden which this terrible war has placed on us, bravely and patriotically, and to show that all the heroes of the Empire are not obliged to shoulder a rifle, work in a munition factory, or sail the seas, but that each one of you, in your own way is determined to do your part towards ending that great struggle, as it can only be done by hard work and united action from one end of the Empire to the other.

I make this announcement today because I want you to begin work to-morrow. Go to your farms, work as you never did before, and remember, that you and I can only bear our fair share of the burden by being diligent and economical.

Some day, my friends, the "God of Battles" will send our brave boys home with victory and honor. Some day a great battalion of the old world people will come to join us in building up a greater Canada than our fathers ever dreamed of, and when they come to look for homes beneath our flag, let us be proud to invite them to our hills and valleys, as we dare only do, if Brome farmers can show them that they did their full part in this battle for right, honor and liberty.

HOW YOU MAY REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT

Overstuffedness is a very unwelcome condition especially in the present day, when slender figures are so fashionable, and every reader of this paper has noticed the tendency of some people to put on an excessive amount of fat.

If you happen to be one of those whose weight is more than it should be, don't try to starve yourself, eat all you want, but go to your druggist and get out of orlene in capsule form and take one with each meal.

Oil of orlene increases the oxygen-carrying power of the blood and dissolves the fatty tissue, in many cases at nearly the rate of one lb. per day. Be sure to get oil of orlene in capsule form. KIDNEY TROUBLE CURED AT 82. Intense Power Of Dr. Cassell's Tablets again Proved.

Back pains so severe as to be like knife-thrusts. Operation said to be the only chance of Cure. So Weak and Wasted he could hardly drag about. Now in Splendid Health through DR. CASSELL'S TABLETS

Dr. Cassell's Tablets put new life and vigour into the kidneys by strengthening the nerves that control kidney action. That is why Dr. Cassell's Tablets cure even most severe cases.

LADY OF 67 CURED After 30 years' suffering.

Here is yet another instance of the intense re-vitalizing powers of Dr. Cassell's Tablets. Mrs. Walker, of 49 Kent Street, Barrhead, Glasgow, Scotland, says: "I am glad to tell you that my mother, Mrs. Cairns, and myself have derived very great benefit from Dr. Cassell's Tablets. My mother is now sixty-seven years of age, and had suffered for about thirty years from a functional complaint which used to make her unable to move sometimes. About two months ago she caught a chill, which affected her kidneys, and laid her up altogether. She was in frightful pain all round her body, and in her back, and to move at all caused her intense suffering. We tried all sorts of remedies for her, but she got no better; in fact, I thought she was never going to be well again. However, reading about Dr. Cassell's Tablets, I decided to get her some, and from that time she improved wonderfully. She is now better than she has been for years, and it is all due to Dr. Cassell's Tablets. She was very run-down in health as well as suffering from kidney trouble, and the Tablets simply worked wonders. "I have taken them myself for severe backache brought on by strain, and they soon cured me, too."

BRITAIN'S FINEST REMEDY Popularity Now World-wide

The world-wide reputation which Dr. Cassell's Tablets have achieved, as a really reliable Nerve and Body Restorative for young and old, must be due to merit, and merit only. Mere advertisement will sometimes ensure a reputation of a sort, but it is true worth that tells, and particularly is this so with Dr. Cassell's Tablets. This famous medicine is a true and tried remedy for Nervous Breakdown, Nerve Failure, Infantile Weakness, Neurasthenia, Sleeplessness, Anaemia, Kidney Trouble, Dyspepsia, Stomach Disorder, Wasting, Palpitation; and they are especially valuable for suffering mothers, and girls approaching womanhood. All druggists and storekeepers throughout the Dominion sell Dr. Cassell's Tablets at 50 cents. People in outlying districts should keep Dr. Cassell's Tablets by them in case of emergency. A Free Sample will be sent on receipt of 5 cents for mailing, and backing by the sole agents for Canada, H. P. Ritchie & Co., Ltd., 10 McCab Street, Toronto, Ont.

Age makes no difference to the extraordinary curative power of Dr. Cassell's Tablets; they cure old or young, from the white-haired grandparent bowed with the weight of years, that is the only conclusion to be drawn from the testimony to Dr. Cassell's Tablets, which grateful people in the Mother Country are constantly giving to their Canadian brothers and sisters. Here, for example, is Mr. Benjamin de Grey, of 2 Clifton Terrace, Queen Street, Spalding, Birmingham, England, telling how Dr. Cassell's Tablets cured him of acute kidney trouble when nothing else tried could even relieve. And Mr. de Grey is 82 years of age. He says: "A few years ago I began to have a dull, heavy feeling after everything I ate, and this was very soon followed by gnawing pain across my back and other indications of kidney trouble. At all times this pain was with me, but it became sharp as knife thrusts when I had to straighten up from a sitting or stooping position. I was told it was kidney trouble, I knew that, but no sort of medicine I had did any sort of good. I cannot describe the suffering I underwent. I could not rest anywhere, and I was so weak by this time that I could hardly drag about. I had lost flesh terribly, too. Often I was bathed in perspiration from the torture I had to endure. I would have given the world for a little relief, but nothing at all helped me. "I was told that an operation was the only thing left for me. But at my age it did not like the idea of that, so again I took medicine, which again proved useless. "I was worn out with pain and want of rest, when at last I got Dr. Cassell's Tablets; yet almost from the first they relieved me. I got better and better, till now I am cured, and in splendid health."

SHERBROOKE POULTRY FANCIERS TO HELP THE BELGIAN POULTRY FARMERS.

Sherbrooke is never far behind in lending a helping hand to any deserving cause, as will be seen from the following. Recently a local poultry fancier received from the "Feathered World" office, London, E.C., a quantity of printed cards making an appeal to poultry keepers everywhere to promise help to the Belgian poultry farmers whose stock had been completely wiped out through the war. These cards solicit promises of hatching eggs, stock birds, etc., and when the time comes the whole as promised to be collected and shipped to Belgium. The cards referred to were disposed of among Sherbrooke poultry-keepers and the Feathered World advised of the fact. Below is the featured reply published in the columns of the latter paper, appreciating the kindness: "This week we have to report a noteworthy accession of strength to our cause in a letter from Mr. Geo. Jackson, of Sherbrooke, Quebec, who sends us the names of several Canadian supporters whom he has obtained, and these he expects will be followed by more. Canada has played, with our other great Colonies, so splendid a part in the world crisis that we are not surprised at the warm hearts of her poultry-keepers being stirred by the appeal that Mr. Jackson has so kindly put before them. That gentleman writes on July 20:

"The cards sent me have been distributed, and may good results follow quickly. I enclose several cards that were signed and sent back to me to be returned, many wishing that it was right now that they could have the pleasure of giving their help. We have four big events during September, great agricultural exhibitions that, besides being fat stock shows, cater unstintingly to the poultry men, viz., Sherbrooke, Quebec, Toronto and Ottawa. I believe that hundreds of signatures to help the Belgian poultry-keepers could be obtained in the poultry department of each exhibition from exhibitors and poultry-keeping visitors by a person having the interest at heart and time at disposal. I intend to try this scheme at Sherbrooke, and have a neat display of Belgian flags around a desk, supplied with pens, ink and register, cards being given to those hesitating to sign the latter."

"Needless to say, we are deeply grateful to Mr. Jackson for such practical help, and we are sending him a supply of appeal cards which, we trust, will be filled up and returned to us in due course. A cargo of live poultry and sittings of eggs from the fanciers of Canada would be a splendid token of appreciation and sympathy for their stricken Belgian confreres. "List of Canadian helpers: Geo. Jackson, A. Banks, Geo. Hall, J. A. Cook, A. F. Plant, H. J. Batten, R. Holyer, J. Gunning, W. Coleman, J. Ryland, P. Rugg, W. H. G., all of Sherbrooke, Province of Quebec. Mr. Jackson has now several hundred more cards for further distribution, and will be glad to mail one or more to prospective donors, or receive promises of help, and return to the right quarter. Signing places you under no obligation, for when called upon, if without stock, you are excused.

"Earliness of Variety.—Such varieties as Mastodon and Red Cob are too late even for sections more favorably situated than Brome County, as they reach a fair state of maturity only in one year out of seven on an average. For low lying land where frosts endanger maturity, the flint varieties such as Longfellow and Sanvictor are preferred. White Cap Yellow is an early variety, but is not recommended. "Distance of Planting.—Many still labor under the delusion that such a higher yield is obtained by close planting that the quantity makes up for the inferior quality. Doubtless that in years with sufficient rainfall the yield where the seeding is heavy can be enormous; but in average seasons the thick planting not only loses in quality, as is always the case, but also loses in quantity. It should be the aim of every farmer to find out for his own fields which is the proper distance to plant to obtain the greatest yield of ensilage of the best quality. As a rule for dents the rows should be three and a half feet apart and for the flints three feet apart. If in hills these should have the same distance between them as is between the rows. If the corn is planted in continuous rows stalks should be thinned down to about one every ten inches.

Does the Local Fair Fulfill the Object for Which They are Held?

(By C. H. Hodge, Macdonald College Demonstrator, Richmond.)

If they awaken a competitive spirit that leads to the improvement of live stock, field crops or any of the numerous products of the farm, then they do fulfill it; but if they are merely a holiday for the people then they fail in their object and leave the District which they serve, no better off than they were before the Fairs were held. To the farmer the Fair should be a stimulation towards improvement. It should lead him to reject the scrub bull and mongrel 4000 lb. a year cow, and replace them with animals of one breed and type. It should encourage him, to secure better seed and to keep that seed clean and pure to treat his oats to keep them free from smut and his potatoes to protect them from scab and rot.

The biggest and best work of the Fair is its encouragement of pure bred live stock, for live stock is undoubtedly the most important branch of our Canadian Agriculture and yet what a lack of uniformity we see in the stock of most Canadian farms. If the average farmer could only be brought to realize how much it was to his own interest to have his farm noted for the production of only one breed of each class of live stock he would soon adopt some system of breeding that would bring that about. How different are the haphazard methods of the majority of our Canadian farmers to those of the Old Country live stock breeders where for several generations the same families have been breeding not only the same breed, but as far as possible the same strain within that breed.

As a farmer why he does not drop the scrub and make a start in the pure bred line and he will probably tell you he cannot afford it or that he is too old to begin. Yet if he is farming as a business how can he afford not to start. Let him study the records that have been published from time to time and see what the winning cows have been. Let him carefully study the records of his own cows for a few years and compare them with the records of some of the pure bred dairy herds and he will be obliged to conclude that it will pay him a handsome profit to invest in a good pure bred sire and if possible one or two cows. As to his being too old, he will probably find that, one of the most interesting ways of renewing his youth, and if he has a son who is working with him, the extra pride that the son will take in caring for the stock will more than repay him for the change in his methods. The Eastern Township's farmers are only just beginning to realize the need of a radical change in their system of live stock breeding. The Farmers Clubs assisted by the Provincial Government are bringing in pure bred sires of all the leading breeds. Yet, even in this work, how frequently one sees the improvement of several years with one bred thrown aside by the introduction of a sire of another breed when the two breeds are again mixed up. The farmers of to-day should look ahead, pick out a breed suitable to his locality, secure one or two of the best individuals he can find and gradually breed up the stock he already possesses until he has a uniform herd with every individual in that herd a pure of nearly pure bred animal, of a high standard, and in the case of his dairy cows he should not be contented if he has a cow in his herd giving less than 8000 lbs. of milk a year, testing as high as possible in butter fat.

This is only the beginning of the work, however, for if he is going to go on improving and bettering the herd which he has already brought up to this standard, he must keep in touch with the work of his breeders and thus he can do best through the medium of the Local and Provincial Fairs. He should attend these regularly exhibiting his own stock noting the stock of the other breeders as it is from them that he must secure the outside blood to maintain his own herd, he can also learn much that will be of value to him in his breeding work, if he watches the work of the judges in the ring and notes the style and type of the animals that carry off the prizes.

...Nor is this all, for in order to make sure that the work he has done in building up a valuable herd will not all be wasted, he must see that his son receives a training that will fit him to carry on the business, and here again the Fair can be of value to him for in the judging competitions it gives his son a chance to compete against the other young men in the community and to see how the animals in the competition should be placed and hear the reasons for the placing.

Every farmer should make it a point to visit the Local Fair at least and the larger ones if possible and at the same time see that his son attends it and also enters the judging competitions.

Standing Crops in Brome Co.

Brome, Sept. 4.—(Special)—The judging of the corn in the Standing Field Crop Competition in Brome County has been completed. This competition is conducted by the Department of Agriculture through the local Agricultural Society. In an interview the judge stated that most of the corn was very good and that some of it was excellent. He emphasized some of the points which influenced him in his judging. Earliness in Planting.—Many suffered from the result of late planting caused, principally, by the lack of proper drainage and of previous preparation.

Earliness of Variety.—Such varieties as Mastodon and Red Cob are too late even for sections more favorably situated than Brome County, as they reach a fair state of maturity only in one year out of seven on an average. For low lying land where frosts endanger maturity, the flint varieties such as Longfellow and Sanvictor are preferred. White Cap Yellow is an early variety, but is not recommended.

Distance of Planting.—Many still labor under the delusion that such a higher yield is obtained by close planting that the quantity makes up for the inferior quality. Doubtless that in years with sufficient rainfall the yield where the seeding is heavy can be enormous; but in average seasons the thick planting not only loses in quality, as is always the case, but also loses in quantity. It should be the aim of every farmer to find out for his own fields which is the proper distance to plant to obtain the greatest yield of ensilage of the best quality. Waterloo, Sept. 4.—(Special)—A regular session of the Town Council was held Wednesday evening. Mayor E. W. Phelps and the following Councillors were present: L. Jodoin, G. Poirier, E. J. McKenna, Jas. Davidson, A. Bissonnette and W. E. Hills.

Mr. Louis Prouffe, who has recently purchased property in town, asked that his name be put on the valuation roll in place of the former owner.

A by-law to provide for a loan of $25,000 was passed and will be voted on September 27 and 28.

Pro-Mayor Jodoin asked that the names of the streets be put up, and it was decided to have 80 signs stencilled. Councillor Davidson very generously donated the signs. A vote of thanks was given him by the Council.

Several petitions were presented for sidewalks, but the Council decided to put the matter over for another year, as the season was getting late and there was a great deal of unfinished work already on hand that must be done.

The ratepayers on Star street asked that the water pipes be laid on that street. This was handed over to the Water Committee.

PATRIOTIC WORK IN SHERBROOKE

Appeal Made to Send in Home Preserved Fruit for the Soldiers at The Front

A movement has been made by the Canadian Clubs and Red Cross Society to furnish the Canadian soldiers in the trenches of France and Flanders with canned fruit. The War Office supplies jam, but it does not in any way take the place of preserved

"It is the bloodiest war in history and on the part of our enemies one of the most savage." We have nothing to do but set our teeth and to see to the end of it." (Hon. Bonar Law.)

Much of the sickness of our men has been found to be due to the lack of fresh and preserved fruits. In several cities an organized effort has been made to supply this need, by getting our patriotic women to do down a little more than they require for family use, and send a few jars to the Red Cross or Canadian Club. Women in other sections of the country may join in this good work. The Overseas Club will look after the distribution by an arrangement made with the Canadian Clubs. Let our Canadian women show that they are not indifferent in this matter. An extra basket of peaches or plums will not cost much and the home preserving fruit will do a great deal of good. FOR CANADIAN PRISONERS.

The Duke of Wellington Chapter acknowledges with many thanks generous donation of homemade preserves, magazines, pamphlets and playing cards from Waterville; Also $2.00 from Mrs. F. Bowen for Canadian Prisoners in Germany. The Chapter intends shipping a box of homemade preserves, jellies and preserves September 15th, for the Canadian men overseas. Will all those contributing newspapers kindly leave them at the Officers Mess Rooms, Dufferin Avenue, in care of the Rosemary Gift Shop and McCaw and Bissell's.

Grand Motor Cycle Racing

The following well known riders will take part in the Motorcycle Races, which will be held by Canada's Great Eastern Exhibition, on the Fair Grounds, September 7th, 8th, 9th and 10th next.

The famous JACK LAVIOLETTE, Canada's well known sportsman. One of the fastest Motorcycle riders in Canada and the fastest staling hockey player in the world. Holder of two and ten mile Provincial records.

ALEX. BINETTE, The Flying Soldier Rider, universally known throughout Canada and holder of three and five mile Provincial records.

"GENE" DAVID, the well known dirt track rider and the first Provincial Champion.

BILLY BOUCHARD, the well known rider from the New England States. Previous dirt track rider from Providence, R.I.

For the convenience of the attending public we publish below the following Dirt Track records and their holders, and at every day of the Meet one or more of the above mentioned riders will try for the various records, and as the Sherbrooke track is the fastest in the Province some of these are sure to be broken.

Provincial Records: Half-Mile Dirt Track:

- 1 Mile—Time, 1.10—"Marty" Martineau, Sherbrooke Fair, 1914. (Note—The previous one mile record was held by Johnny Cox, of New York, made at DeLorimer Track, Montreal, Sept., 1913. Time, 1.12.)
- 2 Miles—Time, 2.30½—Jack Lavolette, Montreal, July, 1914.
- 3 Miles—Time, 3.47½—Alex. Binette, Montreal, July, 1914.
- 5 Miles—Time, 6.14½—Alex. Binette, Montreal, July, 1914.
- 10 Miles—Time, 12.48½—Jack Lavolette, Montreal, Sept., 1914.

Grand Stand Attractions

Never in the history of the Fair has such care been exercised in securing attractions that will please. The outdoor stage was searched from coast to coast for talent, and those who follow this line of business state that without exception a wonderful programme has been arranged for.

The love of trained animals is found in every normal being, and realizing this the directors have secured the best trained animal show on the stage. You will enjoy this feature.

Then you no doubt have read about Cabarets. They surely are wonderful. To save you from going to New York to see a Cabaret that is a Cabaret, the Entertainment Committee has arranged to bring one to Sherbrooke. Imagine yourself sitting at a table placed amid waving pines, beautiful colored lights, delicious things to eat, and as you sit there enjoying yourself the best Cabaret performers and dancers in the land will entertain you.

The Grand Stand has been brightened up, and on a hot day will be as cool as can be.

Special Evening Attractions

Musical Concerts by Massed Bands of Music

The finest Bands in the country have been secured and will perform every morning, afternoon, and at three evening performances on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, including North Hatley, Danville, Coaticook, 54th Regiment, 53rd Regiment and Pipe Band from the 5th Royal Highlanders, Montreal, this by permission of Lieut.-Col. J. G. Ross, Officer Commanding.
Concerts every morning at 10:30 outside Main Building.

Racing

The Horse Races this year will be the talk of the horsemen for months after the final result is announced. There must be close finishes, because the horses entered in every class are top-notchers.

The track is being worked into the pink of condition, and if the track record made by Jennie W. in 1908 is not broken, the writer won't write another advertisement for the Exhibition until next year.

A starter with an international reputation has been secured, and the public will be relieved of all tedious waits. Experts tell us that it is worth the price of admission to see starter King handle the drivers. You won't have to ask who is boss when you see him work.

Write for the official programme which will tell you all about the races. Select the races you want to see—then come to Sherbrooke even if you have to walk.

If you own a race horse you will be interested in knowing that the accommodation for horses is better than ever.

The Main Building

A week before the date set for the closing of the entries, the space in the Main Building was overbooked. The writer visited the Main Building yesterday, and found an army of men at work. The booths have been greatly improved, and never before has this building presented such an attractive appearance.

The Railway exhibits are now almost completed, and are really beautiful.

The Experimental Farm exhibit is one of particular interest and will no doubt be the rendezvous for thousands of prosperous farmers throughout the Eastern Townships.

CITY NEWS

Mrs. Harold Shepherd and young son left this week to visit friends in Toronto and later will spend some time in Goderich, Ont.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church at Lennoxville met on Thursday afternoon at the pleasant country home of Mrs. Albert Bradley, about a mile and a half from the village. Mr. Downs, Mr. W. Reed and Mr. Young kindly gave the use of their motor cars to convey most of the party, contributing much to the pleasure of the afternoon. At the business meeting it was decided to hold a harvest home chicken-pie supper on the 27th of this month. Refreshments were served on two long, flower-decorated tables in the dining-room, and were of the usual very acceptable character.

The first tea of the season given Thursday by the ladies of St. Patrick's Church at their commodious and handsome hall, was an unqualified success, being largely attended. The hostesses were Mrs. Terick G. Haultain, Mrs. Firmin Campbell and Mrs. Robert Jessamine, who received the guests. The small tables were tastefully decorated with shaded nasturtiums and the tea table which was presided over by Mrs. Mooney, was arranged with sweet peas and brilliant asters, looking very attractive. The assistants were Mrs. L. A. Poulin, Misses Anita Dugal, Phyllis Jessamine, the Misses Tobin, Mulvena, Campbell, Stella Hawkins and Isobel Haultain.

LOOK OUT FOR PICKPOCKETS. The public are warned to be on the lookout for pickpockets during Fair Week. One dealer in the Market is reported to have been robbed of $70 this morning.

THE LATE MRS. A. E. BARTON. Many friends assembled yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. A. E. Barton, Fairmount Avenue, to be present at the funeral of his wife, the late Mrs. Barton, who passed away after only a year's illness, on Wednesday night.

A service was held at the house by the Rev. W. H. Moorhead, B.A., who also conducted the service at St. Peter's Church, assisted by the Rev. H. R. Bigg. "Forever with the Lord," and "When our heads are bowed with woe," favorite hymns of deceased, and selected by her, were sympathetically sung by the choir, and the body was borne to the hearse and taken to Elmwood cemetery, followed by a considerable cortege and reverently laid to rest. The solemn words of the commitment were read by the officiating clergyman and the newly-made grave was hidden from view with quantities of lovely flowers.

The bearers were Messrs. Ralph Giff, William Mead, James Hope and Mr. Patton, and the chief mourners were Mr. A. E. Barton, husband of deceased; Charles Pearson, Sr., father; Edgar and Gordon Barton, sons; Frederick Pearson, Charles, William and John Pearson, brothers; A. E. Dorman, W. J. Dean, Henry Waite and Bernard E. Taylor, brothers-in-law; Andrew and Wilbur Dean, Charles Waite and Edward Dorman, nephews; Mr. and Mrs. William Barton.

The late Mrs. Barton, whose maiden name was Alice Pearson, leaves a large family connection, and many friends to mourn her loss. In the prime of womanhood and looking forward to a happy future, she has been called away.

Mrs. Barton's illness was not at first thought to be at all serious, and she herself made light of it, but it made rapid progress, and in spite of the skill and care of husband, friends, Mrs. Beard, the nurse, in whose arms she passed away, the end came quickly but peacefully.

In addition to those mentioned before she is survived by a little daughter, Dorothy Pearson, seven sisters, Mrs. A. E. Dorman, Mrs. H. Waite, Mrs. W. J. Dean, Mrs. A. E. Dickie (Boston), Miss Annie Pearson (Boston), Mrs. Arthur Wingrove, Mrs. B. Taylor, and a brother, Thos. Pearson of Red Deer, Alta.

Mrs. Barton's death is the first break in a family of thirteen. The floral offerings were beautiful.

UNDER TWO FLAGS. Many Czechs From England Fighting in French Foreign Legion. There are many London Czechs (Slavic natives of Bohemia) fighting in the Foreign Legion of France. In a letter from the hospital at Joinville, one of these, Bohumil Tschinkel, says the Legion had the honor of being chosen to be the first out of the trenches and to take the German lines with the bayonet between Souchez and Carency. He wrote: "French guns of all calibres were firing together for two hours without interruption. It was like the eruption of volcanoes or an earthquake. Suddenly at 10 a.m. the firing ceased, and the 'Charge' was sounded. We were out of the trenches like lightning. It was wonderful. We were like a storm. In ten minutes we had won the first lines of German trenches, but the worst was to come. But there was no stopping us. After an hour and a half of terrible fighting we took three lines of German trenches, and were driving the Germans in front of us."

By this time all the officers of our Czech company were wounded, so a sergeant took command, and we entrenched ourselves as best we could; but finally had to retire about 120 yards. It was then I got my first wound; a piece of shrapnel went clean through my right shoulder, and half an hour later I got a second wound from shrapnel in my elbow. Of our company of 250 men only 60 were left quite sound. All the others were killed or wounded. It was a sad moment looking round for our dead comrades."

FULL TRUST IN KITCHENER

Rosebery Says He Will Act on Compulsory Service When the Moment is Ripe

WOULD NOT SCRUPLE TO ASK THE COUNTRY TO GIVE POWER REQUISITE FOR SUCH MOVE.

London, Sept. 4.—The Daily Chronicle says:

"Lord Rosebery, in a speech at Glasgow yesterday, referred to the subject of compulsory service. We had established, he pointed out, after great effort, a national government in which we might put unlimited confidence, positively because it was a collection of the most able men, and negatively because there was no other government to take its place.

"We know, also, the disadvantage of swapping horses when crossing a stream, and our only course as patriotic citizens is to put unlimited confidence in the Government. Surely we should have confidence in the Government, which alone had the necessary information as to the question of compulsory service.

"Of course, in this respect, the Government was mainly Lord Kitchener. Why this wrangle about it in the newspapers? Those who argued could not know half as much as the Government. If we did not put our trust in the Government and Lord Kitchener we were representing, indeed, a lost cause."

Lord Rosebery believed that if Lord Kitchener found the moment ripe and the need imperative he would not scruple to ask the country to give him the power requisite for carrying compulsory service into effect.

MEMORANDA OF INSTRUCTIONS

New School Books Authorized by Department for Present School Year

INSPECTORS ARE HOLDING TEACHERS' CONFERENCES TO EXPLAIN THE CHANGES

Quebec, September 4.—(Special)—The Department of Public Instruction announces that the new "Memoranda of Instructions" to the teachers of the Protestant Elementary Schools of the Province were sent to the inspectors for distribution last week. This pamphlet deals with the new Course of Study adopted in May by the Protestant Committee.

Another "Memoranda of Instructions" for the teachers of the Protestant Superior Schools (Model Schools and Academies) is expected to be issued on Monday the 6th instant.

The Department repeats the announcement that the new school books are authorized for the present school year. It seems that unauthorized statements to the contrary have been made. It is possible, of course, that the new programme may not be in full working order in all schools for some weeks, but the Elementary Inspectors are holding their Teachers' Conferences this month so that the changes may be clearly explained in good time.

HORSE RACING IN FRANCE

Paris, Sept. 4.—(Special)—Resumption of horse racing in France in the spring is being considered by the Ministry of Agriculture and by turf authorities, says the Petit Parisien. It is proposed to give prizes provided from the reserve funds of the racing associations, which, while far from amounting to the sums usually offered as purses for the classic events, would be sufficient to enable breeders to continue their efforts to improve their stock.

TRIED TO TAKE HIS OWN LIFE

(Continued from page 1.) Joseph Alfred Sanschagrin, was the only additional witness. He had known deceased for three years, had often worked for him and had no personal trouble with him. Witness' brother lived with him and also worked for deceased. Up to Monday last he knew nothing of any misunderstanding between them.

BROTHER TOLD OF TROUBLE

He told of going with his brother on different occasions to endeavor to get a settlement with deceased, the difficulty was in the price per day as his brother expected twenty-five cents more than deceased wanted to pay him. Witness did not exactly understand Westgate's explanations in that respect. Westgate asked Fred Sanschagrin what great hurry there was when he told him to get his books, and he seized Westgate by the arm and they came very near fighting. Witness told his brother to stop and he did. Neither of them had been in the village since Tuesday until that morning. When he reproached his brother for raising his hand he replied, "Well, it is all right but let him pay me."

Witness continued that he told his brother that morning (Friday) that he was sorry he had put his claim in a lawyer's hands on Tuesday last as it was so small. "I explained to him that he must settle his affairs in a more human manner than with his fists, and added that I always settled my affairs with Westgate amicably." His brother had carried a revolver for seven or eight years; he also had a rifle but no cartridges.

LACKING IN INTELLIGENCE

That Friday morning his brother entered his house on returning from the village and then ran towards the woods. Witness heard the discharge of guns and called on his brother to stop. Others called out to him to stop but he took no notice and went on running. His brother was lacking in intelligence and had not appeared to be "all himself" for some years. He was of a nervous and excitable temperament and spoke and laughed to himself a lot.

THREATENED TO FIX DECEASED.

Questioned by the forensic witness said his brother expected a dollar and a quarter per day instead of a dollar. He advised him to accept the dollar. His brother said he would see his lawyer and then go to Westgate and accept the dollar and that if deceased would not settle that way he would fix him. He understood him to mean he would lie, him with his fists. Witness did not know what had happened when he saw his brother being chased but learned afterwards from the policeman. He did not think it his duty to inform Westgate of his brother's threats as he never suspected he would kill him. Some years ago he had advised his father to send him away where he would be out of mischief as he was not quite right.

BRAVE ACT OF FRENCH AVIATOR

Alighted Behind the German Lines and Rescued a Comrade

Paris, September 4.—Adjutant Bertin, of the French Aviation Corps, has been cited in the orders of the day and awarded the decoration of the Legion of Honor for alighting behind the German lines and bringing back in safety Adjutant Boyer, who was compelled to set fire to his machine as the result of an accident.

Both aviators were engaged in reconnoitering expeditions in the same direction. Bertin's landing point was about four miles behind that of Boyer. On returning after executing his mission, Bertin saw Boyer's machine in flames. He landed in face of a heavy fire, picked up his comrade and flew back to the French lines with a fragment of shell in his thigh. The aeroplane was struck in 98 places by bullets and pieces of shells.
