Template documentation [view] [edit] [history] [purge]

For the cleanup tag, see Template:Cleanup-gallery.

This template provides advanced gallery building functionality (such as scrolling captions and fine-tuned formatting control). For creating basic galleries, use the Gallery tag.

This template displays a gallery of images in an array, left-to-right in rows. Global parameters `|width=` and `|height=` control the size of all images in the gallery unless overridden by an image's `|widthn=` parameter. The number of images per row is based upon the image width parameters and the width of the screen. The number of images per row can change when the user resizes the window.

For style guidelines about where galleries are appropriate, see §Image galleries of Wikipedia's Image use policy.

Linee guida sul principio di enciclopedicità

Una persona è enciclopedica se:

- La persona è considerata come una figura importante o è ampiamente citata da coetanei o successori.
- La persona è nota per aver dato origine ad un nuovo concetto significativo, teoria o tecnica.
- La persona che ha creato, o giocato un ruolo importante nella co-creazione di un lavoro significativo o ben noto, o il corpo collettivo di lavoro, che è stato oggetto di un libro o di lungometraggi indipendenti, o di più articoli periodici indipendenti o recensioni.

Il lavoro della persona (o lavori) che:

- è diventato un monumento significativo,
- è stata una parte sostanziale di una mostra significativa,
- ha vinto notevole attenzione critica,
- è presente all'interno nelle collezioni permanenti di diverse gallerie di rilievo o musei.

Linee guida per enciclopedicità: autori, editori, giornalisti, registi, fotografi, artisti, architetti e altri professionisti creative:

Se disponibili, le pubblicazioni accademiche e peer-reviewed sono di solito le fonti più attendibili.

Altre fonti affidabili comprendono libri di testo di livello universitario libri pubblicati da case editrici rispettati giornali
riviste
principali giornali

Creare nuove pagine

Punto di vista neutrale (WP: NPOV) - Tutti gli articoli di Wikipedia e altri contenuti enciclopedici devono essere scritti da un punto di vista neutrale, rappresentando un punto di vista abbastanza significativo, proporzionale, senza pregiudizi.

Verificabilità (WP: VERIFICABILE) – Il materiale non affidabile rischia di essere messo in discussione: sia esso che tutte le citazioni, devono avere una fonte affidabile e pubblicata. In Wikipedia, verificabilità significa che le persone che leggono e modifica l'enciclopedia devono essere in grado di verificare che le informazioni provengono da una fonte affidabile.

Nessuna ricerca originale (WP: NRO) - Wikipedia non pubblica ricerche originali: tutto il materiale in Wikipedia deve essere attribuibile ad una fonte affidabile e pubblicato. Non possono essere contenute alcune nuove analisi o sintesi di materiale pubblicato che serve per far avanzare una posizione non chiaramente avvallata dalle fonti.

Wikipedia:Stub

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Before proposing or creating a new type of stub, please read How to propose a new stub type.

This page documents an English Wikipedia editing guideline. It is a generally accepted standard that editors should attempt to follow, though it is best treated with common sense, and occasional exceptions may apply. Any substantive edit to this page should reflect consensus. When in doubt, discuss first on the talk page.

This page in a nutshell: An article too short to provide more than rudimentary information about a subject should be marked as a stub by adding a stub template from the list here to the end of the article. Anyone can edit a stub article, or remove a stub template from an article which is no longer a stub.

A stub is an article deemed too short to provide encyclopedic coverage of a subject. The objective of this page is to provide a general guide for dealing with stubs.

The first section, Basic information, contains information that is recommended for most users. The second section, Creating stub types, contains more specialized material.

NOTE: This page is NOT for proposing new stub articles. To do that, please visit Wikipedia:Articles for creation. Existing stub categories can be found at Wikipedia:WikiProject Stub sorting/Stub types.
