

The park and preserve is a cultural landscape long used by indigenous peoples. The Dena'ina Athabascans have lived in this area for over a thousand years. Many place names recall stories or events or identify a family lineage with the place.

- Private Lands
 Many tracts of private lands in and near the park and preserve are not open to public use or travel without land owners' permission. Be courteous and respect private property.
- Lake Clark National Park
 - Lake Clark National Preserve
 - Wilderness area boundary
 - Native Corporations Lands
Please do not trespass.
 - Ranger station

