Some of you may remember me from 2016...

WIKIMEDIAN IN RESIDENCE

(And you may remember this, too...)

Why do Scotland's public libraries have a Wikimedian?

To establish public libraries as quality content creators in the digital sphere, and to provide open access to freely usable content about Scottish culture, derived from our rich library collections.

THE FACE I MAKE

WHEN PEOPLE TELL ME THAT WIKIPEDIA IS A THREAT TO LIBRARIES

 This page documents an English Wikipedia policy.
 It describes a widely accepted standard that all editors should normally follow. Changes made to it should reflect consensus.

 This page in a nutshell:

- The amount of information on Wikipedia is practically unlimited, but Wikipedia is a digital encyclopedia and therefore does not aim to contain all data or expression found elsewhere.
- Although anyone can be an editor, Wikipedia's community processes and standards make it neither an anarchy, democracy, nor bureaucracy.
- Wikipedia is not a place to promote things, is not a thought-book, a website primarily used for communication, a freely-licensed media repository, nor a censored encyclopedia.

Wikipedia is an online encyclopedia and, as a means to that end, an online community of individuals interested in building and using a high-quality encyclopedia in a spirit of mutual respect. Therefore, there are certain things that Wikipedia is not.
