Chamber Music Camp, week #2: July 8-12, 2024

Karen was thrilled to share this camp planning and coaching with her dear, longtime colleague, and teaching partner-in-crime is Dan Wing. A violist, Dan had a career in Germany performing with orchestras; and then a lifetime teaching at Shorewood High School and Einstein middle school. Retired now, but a very popular substitute and highly valued clinician and judge!

Ariana Nelson, cellist, is Karen's daughter. Ariana got her BA from Shepherd School at Rice; and MA from Juilliard. She lives in Arlington VG and is part of the Carpe Diem String Quartet which tours internationally.

We also had Lucas Button, her cello buddy from college- faculty at Bard College, visiting from the Bellingham Music Festival.

“Mystery Moments” keep things exciting! This week we had:

- Fiddle Tunes with Ariana: The gang learned to play a jig, by ear; composed by Ariana. (“Like father, like daughter”, for her composer dad, Roger.)
- Chamber Music sightreading as a chamber orchestra: Brahms Sextet op.18
- Brazilian music with Karen & guitarist Stuart Zobel. The gang played famous tunes: “No more blues” (Bassa Nova) & “Aqualera Brasil” (Samba).
- Music Trivia contest with Dan Wing; chief researcher and chocolate awards.
